

Besides the lack of technical merit within this petition, I really don't think the rule making process is the proper way to resolve individual "turf" disputes.

Official observer monitoring and the existing Part 97 provisions are sufficient to solve the dispute(s).